Year 3's and 5's: Fractured Fairy Tales

Over the past few weeks, the Year 3's and 5's have been comparing the traditional tale of Little Red Riding Hood with Roald Dahl's Revolting Rhymes version. We are currently writing a whole class fractured fairy tale based on the 3 Little Pigs. The students will then be writing their own fractured fairy tales, creating their own unique twist on a story of their own choice.
